Introduction

Introduction

Strategic Pay is pleased to present the inaugural Vanuatu Remuneration Report, and again wish to thank the sponsor BRED bank for making it possible to produce this survey.

This survey will enable the 39 organisations who participated to gain insight into pay levels and practices in Vanuatu, as well as how they remunerate their staff in relation to these levels, in an understandable and user-friendly format. This will greatly assist them to make informed decisions when setting market-related pay or undertaking pay reviews on individuals in their roles in the future.

In future years, the survey will provide even more comprehensive policy, practice and market trends, thereby equipping participants with robust information to assist them with their recruitment and retention strategies.

The survey uses Strategic Pay's JobWise ${ }^{\circledR}$ methodology, which enables participants to readily identify the appropriate functional level for each of their roles, thus providing the survey provider and users alike with a common framework on which to compare remuneration levels.

The JobWise ${ }^{\circledR}$ methodology streams work into four functional streams i.e. Leadership. Technical, Operations and Business Support. Each stream has a number of well-described complementary levels, with examples of roles at each level. This enables participants to allocate a stream and level to each of their roles in a systematic and pragmatic way, with assistance and sense-checking by the provider. More on the JobWise ${ }^{\circledR}$ methodology is contained below and in the appendices.

To this end, users of this report will be reassured that when they consult this survey, they are comparing pay levels for roles of a similar type and level, are therefore confident they will derive considerable value from this resource.

The 12 generic JobWise ${ }^{\circledR}$ bands (labelled A to L) represent an alternative to the narrow banding system that form the sizing output of the SP10 ${ }^{\circledR}$ and $\mathrm{SP} 5^{\circledR}$ system. They are also a response to Strategic Pay's research on the job design, how organisations are structured, and patterns in the job evaluation scores assigned to jobs at different career levels. They have been well tested in client situations.

Survey Parameters

Purpose

The purpose of the Strategic Pay Vanuatu Remuneration Survey is to provide a credible, reliable and consistent mechanism for analysing remuneration levels, practice and policy of Vanuatu organisations.

Timing

The data is reported as at 1 October 2016.

Method of data collection

Ease of data submission for survey participants remains a key objective for the Strategic Pay Survey. An excel file was supplied to organisations to enter relevant employee remuneration data and to respond to questions regarding the organisation's policies and practices. Participants were also asked to allocate JobWise ${ }^{\circledR}$ codes to their roles according to the guidelines provided, which have been reviewed and sense-checked by Strategic Pay to ensure consistency. Strategic Pay uses statistical sampling techniques to ensure representative samples and to avoid data skewing.

Job mapping and sizing methodology

This survey reflects data submitted according to our JobWise ${ }^{\circledR}$ methodology, a mechanism which allows participants to map (or match) their roles to the JobWise ${ }^{\circledR}$ descriptors, but with the robust underpinning of our SP10 ${ }^{\circledR}$ job evaluation methodology. From a quality assurance perspective, we seek to work more closely with individual firms to confirm the validity of their internal relativities and associated matching to the Vanuatu Remuneration Survey format.

Job evaluation is a tool for understanding how jobs and organisations function. It is evident that many roles at middle and lower levels are generic within and across organisations. We expect to see certain patterns in the job evaluation scores assigned to knowledge, experience, complexity and problemsolving. Strategic Pay has condensed this research and understanding into an analytical job matching tool i.e. JobWise ${ }^{\circledR}$.

JobWise ${ }^{\circledR}$ is a job sizing technology for assigning jobs firstly to generic career pathways, and then to the job level that best matches the job content and skill requirements. We call this 'job mapping'. The outcome of job mapping is a career pathway and level for every job, e.g. S6, a Senior Specialised Business Support role in the Business Support pathway. The career pathways and levels within each pathway correspond to Strategic Pay bands that typically underpin the pay structure.
(See appendix F for further information)

Base Salary, Fixed Remuneration and Total Remuneration

The survey report provides detailed analyses for Base salary, Fixed remuneration (Base plus benefits), and Total Remuneration (including all cash and non-cash benefits received). The fixed remuneration and total remuneration lines calculate all remuneration items for which a benefit value has been assigned by participants.

Currency

All currency values are quoted in the Vanuatu Vatu (vt).

Confidentiality

Strategic Pay maintains stringent standards of data confidentiality and security. It is expected that this Survey Report will be used by participating organisations for internal purposes only.

Disclaimer

This report is designed to provide a summary of current pay trends, and as such does not purport to be conclusive or to provide specific guidelines. No responsibility can be accepted for loss occasioned to any person, or organisation, acting, or refraining from acting, as a result of any statement in this publication.

Feedback

We welcome feedback from participating organisations on additions / deletions / enhancements to the Survey. Please send your feedback to Santa Harvett, Market Information Manager at santa@strategicpay.co.nz

Salary Increases

Salary Increases

The information provided in this section of the report is drawn from responses to the policies and practices questionnaire which was completed by 17 organisations.

Fifty-nine percent of participants indicated that they have a formal annual salary review process in place.

While some participants choose January, March, April, or September for salary reviews, October is the most popular month for salary reviews to become effective for each of the staff levels. No participant makes salary reviews effective at the employee's date of anniversary.

Actual Salary Increases Awarded During the Past Year (2015-2016)

Of those who responded, $14 \%$ reported that their recent salary increases were higher than last year and $64 \%$ stated they were about the same as last year. The remaining $22 \%$ reported that salary increases were lower than in 2015.

Participants were asked to provide information on both the salary increases that they applied to the different employee categories over the last year and the overall salary increase for their organisation. The following table shows the levels of increases reported.

Twenty-one percent of participants reported no increase across all staff categories for the past year. Of those organisations that did provide salary increases to employees, the minimum, maximum, and average increase for each employee category is shown in the table below.

| Employee Category | Salary Increase  (as a \% of base salary) |  |  |
| :--- | :---: | :---: | :---: |
|  | Minimum | Maximum | Average |
| Chief Executive | $1.2 \%$ | $5.0 \%$ | $3.6 \%$ |
| Senior Management | $2.7 \%$ | $10.0 \%$ | $5.0 \%$ |
| Middle Management / Specialist | $2.0 \%$ | $10.0 \%$ | $4.5 \%$ |
| General Staff | $0.9 \%$ | $10.0 \%$ | $4.7 \%$ |
| Overall Salary Budget* | $\mathbf{0 . 9 \%}$ | $\mathbf{6 . 0 \%}$ | $\mathbf{3 . 7 \%}$ |

Forecast Increases for the Coming Year (2016-2017)

Twenty percent of participants forecast no salary increases across all staff categories for the coming year. For those organisations which forecast a salary increase, minimum, maximum, and average increase for each employee category is shown in the table below.

| Employee Category | Forecast Salary Increase (as a \% of base salary) |  |  |
| :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: |
|  | Minimum | Maximum | Average |
| Chief Executive | 3.0\% | 10.0\% | 5.3\% |
| Senior Management | 3.0\% | 5.0\% | 3.8\% |
| Middle Management / Specialist | 2.0\% | 5.0\% | 3.5\% |
| General Staff | 2.0\% | 10.0\% | 4.3\% |
| Overall Salary Budget* | 3.0\% | 5.0\% | 4.2\% |

*The 'Overall' increases are a discretely reported figure and not an average of the other figures.

Basis of Salary Increases

The methods participants use to make decisions on salary increases are shown in the table below.

| Basis of Increase | Employee Category (\% of organisations) |  |  |  |
| :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: |
|  | CEO | Senior Management | Middle Management / Specialist | Other Staff |
| Sample Size | 8 | 9 | 11 | 16 |
| Performance | 75\% | 78\% | 82\% | 88\% |
| Cost of living (CPI) | 50\% | 56\% | 55\% | 44\% |
| Affordability | 50\% | 44\% | 55\% | 56\% |
| Market data | 38\% | 56\% | 45\% | 50\% |
| Tenure | 13\% | 22\% | 18\% | 13\% |

A range of methods are used by all participants when deciding on the level of salary increases, with performance the most popular across all employee categories.

Of the responding organisations, $76 \%$ have a formal performance appraisal system in place to assess employee performance.

Strategic Pay strongly recommends that performance be a major consideration in any remuneration decisions.

Vehicle Benefits

All participants who provide vehicles for staff purchase the vehicles.

Incidence of Vehicle Benefits

In this section, 'vehicle benefits' refers to the provision of 'tool-of-trade' cars, 'perk' cars, and / or vehicle allowances, which are defined as follows:

+ Tool-of-trade vehicle - a company car provided for roles where travel is a requirement of the position
+ Perquisite 'Perk' vehicle - a company car provided for roles where travel is not a requirement of the position
+ Vehicle Allowance - an annual allowance paid to an employee who is required to use their personal vehicle for business

Seventy-six percent of participants offer vehicle benefits of some kind, with multiple policies of usage occurring amongst some organisations. No participant offers a choice between a vehicle and a vehicle allowance.

| Vehicle Benefit Offered | $\%$ of Organisations  with Vehicle Benefits |
| :--- | :---: |
| Perquisite 'perk' vehicle | $24 \%$ |
| Tool-of-trade vehicle with personal use, either full or limited | $59 \%$ |
| Tool-of-trade vehicle with no personal use | $18 \%$ |
| Vehicle allowances | $6 \%$ |

Please note that some organisations apply more than one policy when offering vehicle benefits.

Company Car Use Policies

Participants who offer company cars were asked to describe their vehicle use policies; these are shown below by employee category.

| Vehicle Use Policy | Employee Category |  |  |  |  |
| :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: |
|  | CEO | Senior Management | Middle Management / Specialist | Sales | General Staff |

| Limited mileage | - | - | 17\% | - | - |
| Business use only | - | 13\% | 67\% | 100\% | 100\% |

Car Park Conditions

Participants were asked about what car park conditions apply to employees. Of those who responded, $80 \%$ of organisations provide car parks to employees with no additional cost incurred while the remaining $20 \%$ do not provide any car parks.

| Car Park Policy | \% Providing |
| :--- | :---: |
| Car parking is provided within the organisation complex but no additional  charges incurred | $80 \%$ |
| No car park is provided | $20 \%$ |

Fuel Cards

Of participating organisations, 65\% offer fuel cards to employees, of these the table below shows which employee groups are offered fuel cards.

| Fuel Card Policy | Employee Category |  |  |  |  |
| :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: |
|  | CEO | Senior Management | Middle Management / Specialist | Sales | Other Staff |
| Employees with perquisite ('perk') vehicles | 55\% | 33\% | - | - | - |
| Employees with tool-of-trade vehicles | 45\% | 44\% | 50\% | 33\% | 25\% |
| Employees with vehicle allowances | - | 33\% | - | 33\% | - |
| Employees who are required to travel on behalf of the organisation | - | - | 50\% | 33\% | 75\% |

Please note that some organisations apply more than one policy when offering fuel cards.
For the participating organisations that provide fuel cards, restrictions are shown in the following table.

| Fuel Card Policy | $\%$ of Organisations |
| :--- | :---: |
| Limited to registration (i.e. petrol for company vehicle only) | $60 \%$ |
| Limited to named card holder | $30 \%$ |
| Fuel and oil purchases only (i.e. no foodstuffs, etc.) | $20 \%$ |
| No restrictions | $20 \%$ |
| Weekday use only | $10 \%$ |
| No holiday use |  |

Percentages in the above table total more than $100 \%$ as some organisations apply more than one policy for restrictions to fuel card use.

Vanuatu National Provident Fund (VNPF)

All participating organisations provide VNPF contributions to employees, with $88 \%$ indicating they make payments as a flat percentage of the employee's gross salary (the other $12 \%$ did not respond to this question).

The table below shows the minimum, maximum, and average employer contribution to VNPF as a percentage of base salary for each employee category.

| Employee Category |  | Employer Contributions  \% of Base Salary |  |
| :--- | :---: | :---: | :---: |

VNPF Funding

Participants were asked how VNPF contributions are treated in relation to total remuneration. Seventy-one percent of respondents stated that VNPF contributions are paid in addition to or 'on top of' total remuneration whilst $29 \%$ treat VNPF contributions as part of their definition of total remuneration.

| VNPF contributions in relation to total remuneration | $\%$ of  Organisations |
| :--- | :---: |
| Employer VNPF contributions are paid in addition to (or 'on top' of) total remuneration | $71 \%$ |
| Employer VNPF contributions are included as part of our definition of total remuneration | $29 \%$ |

Superannuation in addition to VNPF

Participants were asked whether they offer a superannuation scheme to employees in addition to the Vanuatu National Provident Fund (VNPF). Almost all respondents to this question do not offer, or plan to offer, a superannuation scheme separate to VNPF.

Variable Pay / Incentive Schemes

Types of Variable Pay

Variable Pay Scheme Definitions

For the purposes of this report, variable pay schemes are defined as follows:

Short-term Incentive (STI) Schemes

Short-term (12 months or less) incentive (STI) schemes reward employees for achieving predetermined performance objectives. Performance objectives and the resulting rewards are typically communicated at the beginning of the performance period and are measured and paid quarterly, 6monthly or annually to coincide with financial results. Objectives may be based on individual, team and / or company performance. Rewards are generally expressed either as a percentage of base salary or as a fixed vatu amount.

Bonus Schemes

Bonus schemes retrospectively reward employees for individual, team and / or company performance. Bonus schemes tend to be more subjective and discretionary than commission or incentive schemes. Performance measures and the resulting rewards are not necessarily stipulated at the beginning of the performance period. Bonuses tend to be paid annually.

Commission Schemes

Commission schemes, a type of STI, are typically measured and paid within a monthly or quarterly period. Payments are generally a pre-determined amount or percentage of fees / revenue generated. Targets are commonly expressed as a percentage of each fee / revenue, percentage of gross margin or a vatu amount per unit sold / produced.

Long-term Incentive (LTI) Schemes

Long-term incentive (LTI) schemes reward employees for achieving pre-determined performance objectives over more than one year, usually 2 to 5 years. Performance objectives and the resulting rewards are typically communicated at the beginning of the performance period and are measured and paid after the 2 to 5 year performance objectives are met. Incentives are commonly equity-based, but may be cash-based

Eligibility for Variable Pay / Incentive Schemes

Seventy-one percent of participating organisations offer some form of variable pay / incentive scheme to their employees with profit share or other bonus schemes being the most popular.

Of those participants, the table below shows the percentage of organisations offering each scheme and the percentage of employees eligible for each scheme within those organisations.

For example: 60\% of organisations that offer some form of variable pay / incentive scheme to their employees offer profit share or other bonus schemes; of those organisations, 33\% offer profit share or other bonus schemes to CEOs and sales staff, and all offer them to senior management, middle management and other staff.

| Type of Variable Pay | \% of Orgs | \% of Employees Eligible  (in organisations offering each scheme) |  |  |  |  |
| :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: |
|  |  | CEO | Senior Mgmt | Middle Mgmt / Specialist | Sales | Other Staff |
| Profit share or other bonus schemes | 60\% | 33\% | 100\% | 100\% | 33\% | 100\% |
| STI other than commission | 40\% | 75\% | 75\% | 75\% | 100\% | 100\% |
| Commission scheme | 20\% | - | - | - | 100\% | 50\% |
| Long term incentive scheme | 20\% | 100\% | 50\% | - | - | - |

Percentages in the table above total more than $100 \%$ because some participants use more than one type of variable pay for some staff categories.

Short-term Incentive Schemes (other than bonuses or commissions)

Of those participants who offer variable pay or an incentive scheme of some kind, $40 \%$ offer shortterm incentives (STIs).

All the participants with a STI describe their incentive scheme as 'cherry on the top' (although a small number indicated the STI is 'cherry on top' and 'at risk'). This means the scheme design does not require employees to put existing earnings at risk, but rather provides a variable pay opportunity on top of existing fixed remuneration. Employees are paid at market rate but a high performer will receive an incentive payment while someone who is not meeting performance expectations for the role is unlikely to receive one.

Targeted / Capped Incentive Payments

Incentive targets are typically used to communicate performance expectations to employees, with the targeted amount reflecting competent performance in the role, while caps are typically used by organisations to control the costs of variable pay, but may also be used to:

+ Limit earnings
+ Overcome poor target setting
+ Avoid 'windfall' payments
+ Control adverse behaviours (e.g. sales at all costs)

Participants were requested to provide details for targets and caps set for incentive payments as a percentage of base salary. The table below shows the lower quartile, median, and upper quartile, targets and caps for each employee category.

| Employee Category | Target |  |  | Caps |  |  |
| :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: |
|  | Lower Quartile | Median | Upper Quartile | Lower Quartile | Median | Upper Quartile |
| CEO | 8\% | 10\% | 23\% | 10\% | 25\% | 43\% |
| Senior Management | 5\% | 8\% | 12\% | 10\% | 26\% | 40\% |
| Middle Management/Specialist | 5\% | 8\% | 11\% | 10\% | 19\% | 40\% |

The table below illustrates the combination of performance measures used at different levels.

| Performance Measure | Employee Category (\% of organisations with STI) |  |  |  |

Bonus Schemes

Of participants who offer variable pay or an incentive scheme of some kind, $60 \%$ operate some form of bonus scheme.

Of these, $80 \%$ of the respondents report that bonuses are not company-wide; i.e. factors such as individual or team performance are taken into account when deciding which employees receive a bonus. For the remaining $20 \%$, bonuses are company-wide; i.e. either all eligible employees receive a bonus or no employees receive a bonus.

| Bonus Scheme | $\%$ of Organisations with  Bonus Schemes |
| :--- | :---: |
| Bonuses are not company-wide  (factors such as individual or team performance are taken into account  when deciding who receive a bonus) | $80 \%$ |
| Bonuses are company-wide  (i.e. either all eligible staff receive a bonus or no staff do) | $20 \%$ |

Based on past history, $60 \%$ of organisations with bonus schemes generally pay bonuses every year, while $40 \%$ only pay bonuses in a successful year.

| Bonus Scheme History | $\%$ of Organisations |
| :--- | :---: |
| Based on past history - bonuses are generally paid every year  (for eligible staff) | $60 \%$ |
| Based on past history - bonuses are only paid in a successful year  (for eligible staff) | $40 \%$ |

Commission Schemes

Of participants who offer variable pay or an incentive scheme of some kind, 20\% offer commission schemes across some or all employee levels and use a range of performance or outcome measures to determine commissions paid, including individual performance, team / business unit performance, revenue, and profit or margin.

Long-Term Incentive Schemes

Of participants who offer variable pay or an incentive scheme of some kind, $20 \%$ provide long-term incentives to CEO and Senior Management teams.

Long-term incentives can be an essential part of an organisation's total rewards package. If implemented correctly, they can promote ownership, higher performance and, ultimately, higher shareholder returns. The key feature of a long-term incentive scheme is that it encourages employees to focus on medium to long-term results, as opposed to short-term results (which are typically rewarded through incentives or commission schemes). Organisations will often use a combination of short and long-term incentives to balance short and long-term decision making.

Shift Work and Stand-by / On Call

The table below shows the spread of operating hours among participants.

| Operating Hours | Organisation Department |  |
| :--- | :---: | :---: |

| Onsite gym, massage, fitness classes | 6\% | 6\% | 6\% | 6\% | 6\% | 6\% |

Annual Leave

Annual leave entitlements at the start of employment are shown below for each employee group. Most participants provide between 21 and 25 days annual leave to employees with no organisation providing more than 30 days at any employee level.

Of those organisations, the most common occurrence is to provide long service leave after 6, 10, or 20 years of service.

Sick Leave

|  | Voluntary | Involuntary | Total |
| Senior Management | $12 \%$ | $4 \%$ | $16 \%$ |

Participants were asked to report the pattern of overall staff numbers for the past year and what they were expecting for the next 12 months. The table below shows results to this question as reported for the past 12 months and for the year ahead.

Forty-seven percent of participants had staff numbers stay about the same last year and 69\% are expecting the same again in the year ahead. Twenty percent of participants had a decrease in staff numbers last year however this lowers to $15 \% \%$ expecting a decrease in coming year. Thirty-three percent of participants increased overall staff numbers in the past year yet this drops to $15 \%$ expecting to increase staff numbers in the next year.

Appendix C: Strategic Pay Vehicle Use Methodology

Valuing vehicle use as part of the remuneration package

Private use of an employer-provided vehicle does confer a benefit on the employee. The tricky question - what is the value of that benefit for remuneration purposes?

For the purposes of the current survey, vehicles for private use are valued as follows:

| Company Car Level of Use | Value for Remuneration Purposes |
| :--- | :---: |
| Full use | $40 \%$ of new vehicle purchase price |
| Full use except holidays | $35 \%$ of new vehicle purchase price |
| Working week only | $30 \%$ of new vehicle purchase price |
| Business use only (tool of trade) | 0 (no remuneration value) |
| Business use plus home to work travel | $10 \%$ of new vehicle purchase price |

Appendix D: The Strategic Pay Approach to Job Mapping and Sizing

One of the challenges facing organisations today is the development of effective reward systems to ensure the very best organisational and individual outcomes. Equitable and competitive remuneration is critical to the attraction, motivation and retention of high calibre employees. In order to ensure equitable and competitive systems, an organisation must first establish the relative worth of its jobs. Analytical job evaluation is a useful and reasonably objective basis for assessing relative job worth.

Job sizing is an objective and systematic method of comparing one particular job, a group of jobs, or even a type of work with other jobs. It provides management with key information for identifying and establishing meaningful and dependable pay relationships between jobs, both within the organisation, and externally with the wider labour market.

JobWise ${ }^{\circledR}$ offers a cost effective starting point for the evaluation process, enabling organisations to speedily evaluate comparable roles in varying functions. The emphasis is on looking for the similarities between jobs rather than the differences.

JobWise ${ }^{\circledR}$

Job evaluation is a tool for understanding how jobs and organisations function. It is evident that many roles at middle and lower levels are generic within and across organisations. We expect to see certain patterns in the job evaluation scores assigned to knowledge, experience, complexity and problemsolving. Strategic Pay has condensed this research and understanding into an analytical job matching tool. We call it JobWise ${ }^{\circledR}$.

The JobWise ${ }^{\circledR}$ Framework

The Banding Model

The JobWise ${ }^{\circledR}$ job sizing and placement tool is designed to clarify role expectations at different levels and confirm placement within 'bands'. Banding systems are designed to group roles of similar size for salary management purposes. The emphasis in broadbanding systems lies in understanding the similarities between jobs rather than the differences.

The 12 generic JobWise ${ }^{\circledR}$ bands (labelled $A$ to $L$ ) represent an alternative to the narrow banding system that form the sizing output of the SP10 ${ }^{\circledR}$ and SP5 ${ }^{\circledR}$ system. They are also a response to Strategic Pay's research on the job design, how organisations are structured, and patterns in the job evaluation scores assigned to jobs at different career levels. They have been well tested in client situations.

With the exception of Band A, which is Grade 4 only, the 12 bands each consist of two Strategic Pay grades. They are designed to reflect the outcomes of each of the Strategic Pay job evaluation systems (the grade boundaries having been predetermined and assigned). While narrow-band models tend to suit many small organisations, the two-grade banding model was a natural response to the move to broadbanding by many medium-large organisations seeking pay structures that allowed for flexibility and ease of administration.

The bands and the various pathways within them are diagrammatically displayed above. This shows the pathways, the levels, the bands and the range of SP10® points and Strategic Pay Grades that inform each band.

The Career Pathways

JobWise ${ }^{\circledR}$ is a job sizing tool which enables organisations to analyse and size jobs in one of four standard Career Pathways:

+ Customer and Business Support
+ Operations
+ Technical / Specialist
+ Leadership

The career pathways are the starting point for the process. They define the role orientation in the first instance, with progressive levels of role contribution and expectation determined subsequently. These are the Job Levels within the pathways and are aligned with the Bands.

Each level is defined around the problem-solving and interpersonal skills as well as the organisation setting and expertise required for effective performance. Each level has been informed and developed based on extensive experience gained through implementation of the Strategic Pay job evaluation systems.

Jobs are sized by being assigned a career pathway along with the most appropriate level based on the role profile and set out guidelines. In the event that roles do not fit neatly into an appropriate career pathway and job level, we recommend a formal job evaluation using SP10 ${ }^{\circledR}$, Strategic Pay’s formal points factor job evaluation system.

At Strategic Pay we use two Job Evaluation systems:

+ SP10 ${ }^{\circledR}$ - A points factor system using 10 factors with pre-determined weightings. The separate definition of each factor and sub-levels within each factor allows the evaluator to explain the subtleties and nuances of roles more precisely than the SP5 methodology. This system was initially developed by PriceWaterhouseCoopers.
+ SP5 ${ }^{\circledR}$ - A points factor system using 5 factors with pre-determined weightings. This system is designed to examine the similarities between jobs, rather than the minute differences. It does this by amalgamating some factors treated separately in SP10 (e.g. education and experience joined as the Expertise factor) and eliminating sub-levels within each factor. This makes it a simple system, ideal for broad-banded environments.

Both systems can evaluate jobs across all sectors and link directly to the Strategic Pay database and suite of surveys.
